

How to find Stora Skuggan

Stora Skuggans is located on Norra Djurgården. It is close to the city, to Solna and to Lidingö.

How to get here:

Public transportation: Metro, red line, line 14 to Universitetet station.

Or buses 50, 540 to Universitetet norra. With the station entrance behind you, follow the left road where your nose points, through the University area, past the Arrhenius buildings onto a field with rugby goals. Continue along the gravel road straight ahead to a small roundabout with a bus stop. Follow the sign to the left. Here we are! The walk takes about 10 minutes. Bus number 50 also goes to Stora Lappkärrsberget and then about 10 minutes walk. See the trip planner on sl.se.

By car: - from the city

Drive to Roslagstull, and take Roslagsvägen (E18) north. Keep right onto the Frescatiavfarten at the National Museum of Natural History and turn right at the roundabout, first exit. Follow Bergiusvägen straight ahead and turn right when the road parts, onto Stora Skuggans väg. Continue straight ahead to the car park at a small roundabout. Here we are!

- from the north

Follow the E18 south towards Stockholm. Keep right onto Ekhagsavfarten. Turn left at the roundabout at Bergianska (at Roslagsbanans stn and Plantagen). You are now on Bergiusvägen. Follow Bergiusvägen straight ahead and turn right when the road parts, onto Stora Skuggans väg. Continue straight ahead to the parking lot at a small roundabout. Here we are!

Keep in mind that this is paid parking!
